REPORT

A workshop on wild vegetables was conducted on 26th August 2019 in MPSS hall. Ms. Nilam Jorwar who dedicated her life towards the upliftment of the tribals in Kalsubai area of Maharashtra. She in her speech said that nature gives us everything in plenty. Once you go in the forest you will never go hungry provided you respect nature. She in her talk gave description of various wild vegetables which sprout in rainy season and are eaten by the locals. She shared recipes how to retain the nutritional values of these wild vegetable and can be relished by everyone. She explained how the locals do not exploit anything that nature provides and we as educated individuals should adopt a health way of life. On this occasion an exhibition of wild vegetables along with a writeup of recipies was visited by students which also included school children. This session on health and nutrition was in collaboration with Shrushtidyan.
