Students Presentations for Independence Day

The Department of Political Science organised an online presentation event for the students to celebrate the 74th Independence Day on 14th August, 2020. Twenty students of the TYBA Political Science presented their views. Students explored the political, cultural, social and economic dimensions of the pre independence and post independence era. They connected the above processes with the ideas of constitutionalism and nationalism and brought out the harmony and tensions prevailing between the two concepts. They also highlighted the achievements and challenges facing India in the age of globalization and the prospect of India emerging as a major power on the global stage. The students used powerpoint to present their ideas. The session ended with interaction and questionnaire whereby students discussed and debated on the different aspects of India's political journey post independence.
