Report

This session gave the many insights to the students as to how times have changes now. The resource person shared his history from the perspective of technological changes. He also mentioned as to how there is an increase in the competition leading to individuals only stressing more towards achievement and in that process neglecting their mental health. He also threw light on how people are not in a position to balance between their personal and professional life.

He emphasised on Proper time management and focusing on small goals rather than directly looking towards the larger one.
