REPORT:

Dr. Sanjay Oak, Corona Task Force Chief, Maharashtra was invited as part of DBT STAR COLLEGE ACTIVITY, Online lecture series-Gyan Vigyan “Lecture VII -Insights on COVID-19 Vaccination” to guide students about Current COVID -19 situation and the immunization process.

Before the lecture a Google form was floated among the staff and students of RJ College to understand the queries and doubts people have regarding vaccination. 185 responses were received. Based on these responses a Questionnaire was made and shared with Dr. Oak. He moderated the questions and sent us back a list of questions that he would answer during the actual talk. Dr. Tania Karipel and Dr. Rachana Acharya asked these questions to Dr. Oak during the live virtual meeting and clarified all the doubts and queries of the participants. This session helped the participants in overcoming vaccine Hesitancy and it was an eye opener as it gave the audience perspective with regards to the need for vaccination as well as its safety.

Questions for Dr. Sanjay Oak

As a chief of Task force what were the challenges that you had to face dealing with patients, hospital staff and relatives of patients in the initial phase. You have experienced a near death situation could you share with us the safety and precautionary measures to take now when the public transport (trains/buses) have started. How is the situation in India in comparison to Europe? Will the vaccine be effective for the variant strains that have been found recently in the UK?

1. When are the vaccinations going to be available for the common people? And also if I am to travel abroad, do I have to get vaccinated? - Sheryl Thomas, Student
2. People say this vaccine has side effects, if it is true, What are those side effects? Are they serious? Preeti Oza, Student
3. The process of finding the thought process gone to form a vaccine from start) in detail the mechanism of the vaccines, if any side effects and when will it be provided for common people. Chaitanya Ghalkal, student
