REPORT

Celebration of World Population Day 2020

Department of Economics of R.J. College celebrated World Population Day by organizing a webinar on July 11, 2020. The theme of the webinar was 'World Population: Various interesting facts'. It was scheduled at 3.30 pm on zoom platform and live on YouTube. Students and teachers across various streams participated in the webinar. The main idea was to focus on population characteristics of various countries both developed and developing and bring out interesting facts. This was the small attempt made by the Department of Economics i.e. Prof. Sucheta Joshi, Prof. Pranali Karnik and Prof. Devashree Ghorpade.

The webinar began with the welcome speech and need & importance of World Population Day Celebration by Head of the Economics Department Dr. Sucheta Joshi. Then Prof. Pranali Karnik focused on the interesting facts of different countries like China, Russia, and Egypt etc. talking about the trend of the population. Prof. Devashree Ghorpade continued the facts of remaining countries like US, Japan, India etc. and emphasized on the importance of women education as well. The webinar was concluded by Dr. Sucheta Joshi. And the programme ended by showing a video of Amazing Population Facts titled 'World Population 2020- All you need to know about'. Prof. Devashree Ghorpade proposed a formal vote of thanks. The Webinar ended at 4.30 pm.

Teacher Participants for the programme were 10 while students' participants were 20.
