BRIEF REPORT: Dr. Kurve shared her experience on working in the field of marine biology. In her talk she discussed about the various types of shore found on the west coast of Maharashtra. She showed beautiful videos made by her as the part of her research work. She shared her work on biodiversity of the coastal area in Ratnagiri district. The endemic animals found on the Ratnagiri coast were a visual treat for students and teachers. The interesting adaptations of the animals were highlighted in her talk. The students and teachers had a brief interactive session with Dr. Kurve in which she answered the questions.
