REPORT:

The Department of Biotechnology organized Lecture IV- “Genetic Counselling” as part of the online lectures series-Gyan Vigyan under DBT STAR COLLEGE ACTIVITY. Speaker was Ms. Pooja Ramchandran, Genetic counsellor, VP, Mapmygenome, Mumbai. The talented, Ms. Pooja Ramchandran enthusiastically elaborated on importance of genetic counselling and helped students in understanding following aspects:

- How interpretation of family and medical histories help to assess the chance of disease occurrence or recurrence.
- Need of education about the natural history of the condition, inheritance pattern, testing, management, prevention, support resources and research.
- Significance of providing the counsel to promote informed choices in view of risk assessment, family goals, ethical and religious values.
- Importance of giving appropriate support to encourage the best possible adjustment to the disorder in an affected family member and/or to the risk of recurrence of that disorder
