REPORT

Since September 10 is celebrated as “World Suicide Prevention Day”, Psychology Association- PsychoSphere, organized an interactive workshop on ‘Emotional Support’ by Samaritans Mumbai, a Suicide Prevention Helpline, on Saturday, 8th September, 2022. PsychoSphere also inaugurated its activities this academic year with this interactive workshop with a focus on Mental Health Awareness. The workshop was conducted by Mr. Sachin Chidambaram, Asst. Director- Training and development, Samaritans Mumbai and Ms. Anupama Kotiankar, Counselling Psychologist & Head of the Emails Division, Samaritans Mumbai. The guests and students were welcomed by Mr. Chinmay Bapat, In-charge of Psychology Department along with the formal introduction of the guest speaker. Mr. Chitambaran started the workshop by explaining the meaning and the characteristics of suicide. Different metaphors were used in the order to explain the long-term causes of suicidal ideation and how they are associated with faulty appraisal of emotions. Building into the topic through a question answer series, Mr. Chitambaran, created a link between how emotions play a role in Suicidal ideation and how they can also be used as a prevention. The real meaning and role of empathy in providing emotional support was conveyed to the students. Different avenues of working in the field of Suicide Prevention were also discussed during the session. An interactive Q & A session was conducted at the end of the workshop to answer all the questions presented by the students. The event was concluded by presenting a formal vote of thanks by Mr. Chinmay Bapat.
