About the session :

OWASP – (open web application security project) is a free and open software security community. It is a worldwide not-for-profit charitable organization focused on improving the security of software. Their mission is to make software security visible, so that individuals and organizations are able to make informed decisions. Operating as a community of like-minded professionals, OWASP issues software tools and knowledge-based documentation on application security. OWASP has local chapters around the world that help to teach, learn, and inspire application security. OWASP Student Chapters Program is a way to invoke passion about AppSec into students. This helps to extend application security into colleges and universities worldwide.

Our Alumni, Mr Dhiraj Mishra, currently working as a consultant in Ernst & Young, India, is contributing actively to OWASP as their Mumbai Student Chapter. He has made remarkable contributions in the field of 'SQLi Bypassing WAF' and 'The popular CSS Cheat Sheet'.

The OWASP student chapter program conducts a "Null Meet" on a regular basis in our college.
