Dr. Priyadarshani Karve

In a career spanning more than 20 years, Dr. Karve invented a number of improved biomass burning cooking devices, to reduce smoke in the kitchen and dependence on firewood for domestic cooking in rural areas. In 2005, she started Samuchit Enviro Tech, a social enterprise that has been selling a wide range of biomass energy, renewable energy, and energy efficient household energy devices since its inception. Dr. Karve, who is the Managing Director of Samuchit, has also invented an easy-to-use Samuchit Carbon Footprint Calculator for Urban Indians. Dr. Karve is actively involved in international organisations working in the field of renewable energy, equitable sustainable development, pro-poor carbon finance, etc. Over the years she has successfully led numerous short term funded projects based on scientific and technological research, technology dissemination and commercialisation, third party assessments, and policy advocacy, etc. She is also teaching courses on Sustainable Development, Climate Change, etc., at Symbiosis International University. In addition, she is co-editor of 'Shaikshanik Sandarbh' a Marathi language bi-monthly on Science and Education. Her work has been honoured by several national and international awards, including World Technology Award 2005 (by World Technology Network, New York), Sahyadri Hirkani Award 2011 (by Mumbai Doordarshan, India), Pune's Pride Award for Innovation 2013 (by Residency Club, Pune), etc. She has also been featured in a number of national and international periodicals, publications and radio and television programmes.
