Image Building Session by Shalini Singh

Date: 31 August 2019

Day: Saturday

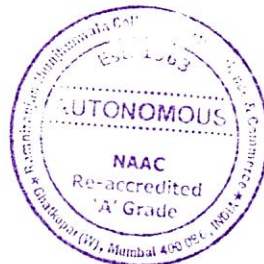

Time: 10:30 AM

Venue: Room No 63, 6th Floor

The Department of Mass Media arranged an Image building session by Shalini Singh for second and third year students. The speaker spoke about the importance of image in the professional world. The session began with an icebreaker activity wherein the students gained hands on information about do's and don'ts of body language. Ms Shalini spoke about the importance of verbal and nonverbal communication and how that can be linked to building and maintaining one's image. The session was very interactive with exercises carried out by the students. Ms. Singh made the students aware of positive personal image and its benefits, showed them how to improve their self-esteem, increase their self-confidence and motivated them to speak fearlessly and purposefully. She answered their queries regarding what if situations. The session concluded with a take home reflection activity and vote of thanks to the guest.

Short Profile of the Speaker:

I am Shalini Singh, an Image & Communication coach, mentoring learners to rediscover themselves through enhanced image and purposeful communication.

With an executive PG diploma in Human Resources from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai and English honors from Miranda House, Delhi University, I have always been passionate about people and communication. I am also trained in Image from Image Consulting Business Institute, Mumbai. Personal Image and Public Speaking are my areas of interest and I have been practicing both during my 15 years of career including various roles in HR.
