Students Council Ad-Hoc Committee started this year activity with the celebration of Teachers' Day on September 5, 2022. Program started with a welcome address by our beloved Principal Dr. Himanshu Dawda. Harsh Gaikwad of SY BVOC FMS expressed his gratitude by singing a song which was self-composed. A Speech was delivered by Sakshi Mohile of TYBCOM, Marathi poem was recited by Sushant Dere of SYBCOM, Shayri by Ichha Viren Shah and short story on Importance of Teachers was told by Nidhi Dubey. The event was well appreciated by all the Teachers. The teachers were given a token of appreciation in the form of Digital printed bookmark made by Dhruvi Kapadia of M.A. EMA part-2.

Students' Council organized Saree and Tie day on December 24, 2022 for students of Degree College. Students in large numbers participated in the event.

Students' Council organized an Elocution Competition with a Theme – "Unquote the quotes of Swami Vivekananda in Today's world" to Celebrate National Youth Day on January 12, 2023. 20 Students participated in the event and shared their views on quotes of Swami Vivekananda and its relevance in today's era.

Students Council also organized Black/White theme day on January 14, 2023, to honour the famous harvest festival of India that is known by different names in different parts of India like Magh Bihu Festival in Assam, Lohri in North, Pongal in South and Makar Sankranti in West and East which also depicts India's spirit of unity in diversity.

'Celebrating our traditions helps in keeping us grounded in our own culture while adapting to a new one' so with this motive Students' Council celebrated Traditional Day on January 28, 2023.

Numerous students participated in the festival.
