Report

Total number of students: 250

Total no. of teacher: 03

A talk given by Shri Irfan Kazi and Dr. Swati Kale on the orientation towards community engagement, civic awareness, and CPR as a first aid. The talk aimed to provide insights into the importance of community engagement and civic awareness and how to be prepared for medical emergencies by learning CPR. The report highlights the key features of the talk and its relevance to the students' academic and social growth.

Key Features:

Community engagement and civic awareness:

1. Shri Irfan Kazi emphasized the importance of community engagement and civic awareness for the development of society. He explained how these concepts are interrelated and how they contribute to building a strong and sustainable community. He highlighted the need for individuals to be active and informed citizens, who are aware of their rights and responsibilities and actively participate in community activities.

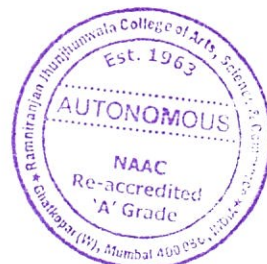

CPR as a first aid:

2. Dr. Swati Kale provided insights into the importance of CPR as a first aid in medical emergencies. She explained how CPR can save lives by providing oxygen to the brain and other vital organs until professional medical help arrives. She demonstrated the proper techniques of performing CPR on adults and children and highlighted the importance of being trained and prepared for medical emergencies.

Hands-on training:

3. The speakers provided hands-on training to the participants to demonstrate the techniques of performing CPR on dummies. They encouraged the participants to practice the techniques and ask questions to clarify their doubts. The hands-on training provided the participants with practical skills and confidence to handle medical emergencies.

Awareness campaigns:
