Report

Objective:

The objective of the competition is to make students aware of life and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi; to understand and follow his principals in life. Mahatma Gandhi was one of the greatest human being of India. His life journey inspires us to lead our life in the way of truth. His mother's religious approach highly influenced his life and inspired him to be truthful and an honest person. Mahatma Gandhi was a person who dedicated his life for freedom movement. During that period he launched Civil Disobedience Movement, Non Cooperation Movement and Quit India Movement. Mahatma Gandhi followed the principle of idealism. He always focused on development of moral and spiritual character of human being. He mainly stressed on better social integration, endless love for human beings which all have a positive impact on mental health. His concept of truth, satyagraha, honesty, non violence gives us psychological strength. The purpose of the competition is to throw some light on Gandhiji's life and to study his philosophy of life. Another objective of the competition is to study the present relevance of his thoughts.
