REPORT

Advocate Aniket Mokashi was welcomed by Dr. Usha Mukundan who started the session by introducing the Covid-19 as a pandemic and how it was declared as a disaster and came under the disaster management act after the lockdown. As a result of lock down the sector which was affected was the unorganized sector which mainly constitutes the migrant workers. The government has taken efforts to give relief to the migrant workers, many of them fled to their villages in spite of facing hardships. Time alone can tell whether these will return back to the cities and how the unorganized sectors will manage. The court are also looking for solutions since they are overburdened with PIL. In his concluding remarks he said educating the migrant workers is the first step to be taken and the employer should pay the employee during this time of crisis. The session ended with thanking the speaker.
