REPORT

Name of the event: Leg cricket

Date: 4th October 2022

Venue: Chittranjan Garden, Vidyavihar

Time: 12:00pm – 3:40 pm

The aim of organizing a leg cricket event was to promote the significance of outdoor sports and provide an enjoyable experience to the players to create awareness about different kinds of unexplored sports and provide a platform for players to polish their skills. It aimed to keep the members of the club active and promote a sense of cooperation and team spirit among them. By promoting underrated sports like leg cricket, the aim of the event was to increase their popularity and give them a platform like other popular sports. Overall, the event seemed to encourage people to engage in physical activities and explore new forms of sports, thereby promoting a healthy and active lifestyle.

The leg cricket event has made a positive impact on the participants as well as the spectators. It provided unique and enjoyable way for people to experience cricket, it also helped to reduce stress and boredom of the members. The players who participated in the event had a good experience, and they were able to learn about a new sport, which may have inspired them to try other forms of cricket or outdoor sports. It also helped to develop teamwork and communication skills. The players worked together and communicated effectively to score runs and win the game. This led to improvement in social skills and better relationships among team members, the event also helped to raise awareness and interest in the sport, which will lead to more opportunities for players to participate in tournaments or other events.

The feedback of the leg cricket event was overwhelmingly positive. Everyone who participated, as well as those who watched as spectators, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The enthusiasm and energy displayed by the players and spectators were truly impressive, it was clear that everyone was fully engaged in the event. The game was played smoothly, and the organizers did an excellent job of making sure everything was well-organized and coordinated. The players had a fantastic experience, and it was evident that they were fully immersed in the game. The spectators also had a great time cheering on their favourite teams and players, and the overall atmosphere was lively and exciting.
