REPORT

Name of the event: "FIT" (fast, intense, and tough).

Start date: 1st November, 2022

End date: 15th November 2022

Venue: Ramniranjan Jhunjhunwala College

The main aim of the event is to promote home-workout programs, recognizing that not everyone can afford to go to the gym. It seeks to promote healthy exercise habits in people's daily routines, and provide mentors to guide participants with proper form and muscle Exercises effectively. Through mentoring sessions, participants can gain an understanding of the benefits of exercise in one's life. The event also highlights the importance of exercising, even during stressful exam months like November for colleges and universities. Encouraging at least 5 minutes of daily exercise helped improve focus and physical health, despite the pressures of exams.

The event had a significant impact, with more than 10 participants engaging in daily exercise. It helped understand the importance of fitness in the minds of the participants and generated positive energy, motivating them to be highly active and complete their work on time. The event also encouraged the development of a new habit of working out anytime, anywhere. Many individuals who were initially hesitant to exercise at home started their fitness journey with this event and were satisfied with the results. The winners were highly motivated about the fitness after meeting the mentors and their tips motivated every participant, including those who were initially reluctant to upload their workout videos.

The feedback from the event was positive, with participants enjoying the event and developing their fitness habits over the course of 15 days. The players showed impressive enthusiasm and high motivation for exercising. The mentorship provided by Mr. Adarsh Shevale was outstanding. Participants cooperated nicely throughout the event, and it was carried out smoothly, resulting in overall satisfaction among the participants. The event also helped some participants in losing weight and getting in shape.
