Report

Name of the event: De Ghumake

Start date: 26th December, 2022

Venue: Chitaranjan Grounds

Time: 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Our aim was to provide opportunities for individuals, including our general body members, to participate in box cricket and unlock their potential. We also aimed to raise funds to support social causes in our community and promote sports culture among youth as a viable career option. Through this initiative, we strived to contribute to personal growth, skill development, and community engagement while making a positive impact on society.

The event had a significant impact on both participants and the audience, with many club members getting the opportunity to explore their interest in box cricket. The event also raised a substantial amount of profit that can be used to serve the community. Additionally, some club members who were present as audience members learned to play box cricket, and the experience gained by participants will benefit them in future tournaments. Overall, the box cricket tournament was a successful event with positive outcomes for the participants, spectators, and community.

The tournament was well-praised by everyone, including the spectators and participants, they enjoyed the unique rules and regulations of box cricket. The tournament was smoothly carried out without any arguments regarding the referee's decisions, and players played with full enthusiasm.

Overall, the experience was enjoyable for both the participants and the spectators alike.
