Programme Report

To mark the 75th year of Independence, departments of Psychology, Philosophy, & Political Science organized a “catch-phrase writing” competition on Saturday, 13th August, 2022 for which the students were expected to Write one original "catch-phrase" inspired from the lessons of any one of the great thinkers of the nation and explain their inspiration behind the catchphrase in a 5 minutes speech.

Dr. Maria Ahmed, Faculty member of the Department of English Literature and Prof. Laxmi Podoli, Faculty of the Department of Commerce were invited as arbiters.

The guests and students were welcomed by Asst. Prf. Chinmay Bapat, In-charge of Psychology Department and the basic instructions and rules and regulations were conveyed to the students. Pre- registration was used in determining the participants. Participants were called on stage to present their slogan and inspiration behind it one by one. Winners were decided based on the authenticity of the slogan, its presentation, and the ability to communicate the inspiration effectively. Winners were announced by the judges and certificates were given to the top 3 contestants. At the same time, participatory certificates were also provided to those who stood out among the participants as a token of appreciation and motivation. The judges were also felicitated with the thank you letter by Dr. Amita Valmiki, Head of the Philosophy Department. The event was concluded by presenting a formal vote of thanks by Asst. Prof. Chinmay Bapat.
