REPORT

Name of the event: Snack art 3.0

Date & Timing:

- 17/10/2022 Day 1- 1 pm- 3pm
- 19/10/2022 Day 2- 11 am- 1:30 pm

Venue- RJ College

Aim:

The purpose of the event was to promote culinary arts and provide the Rotaractors with a platform to display their work through the snacks they had brought. To give them a stage where they can individually and collectively display their ingenuity and inventiveness. To let them think creatively. To encourage them to create new art and to infuse our legacy event with some new energy and concepts.

1. To perform as a team which will help them meet new people and build friendships.
2. To help them comprehend why relationships and bonds are important.
3. To teach them how to work as a group.
4. To assist them in creating fresh memories and new acquaintances.

Impact:

Snack Art 3.0 had a positive impact on everyone because it gave the participants a chance to attempt something original and creative they had never done before. Everyone felt less stressed about examinations as a result, and were happier and more upbeat. It served as a chance for those with a creative streak and a desire to attempt new things. The participants enjoyed working as a team and creating enjoyable things out of food materials. Members grew closer as they recognized how much coordination and cooperation were needed. It inspired everyone to engage in creative endeavors whenever they had free time.

Feedback:

1. They came to understand how critical teamwork and communication are.
2. They enjoyed the art of sharing ideas and thoughts.
3. They were happy to work in teams.
4. They built rapport and connections.

From creating the PR videos to creating the art on event day, participants enjoyed every aspect of the event.
