Report

Cultural Association organized an intercollegiate singing competition to give tribute to the Late legendary singer Bharat Ratna Lata Mangeshkar. 17 students from 9 different colleges of Mumbai participated in the competitions i.e. G.N. Khalsa College, D.G. Ruparel College, Ramnarain Ruia College, N. G. Acharya College, G.M. Momin College, Bhiwandi, Joshi Bedekar College, S.I. E. S. College, HVPS's Law College and R.J. College. Students are torchbearers of the future and they carry out the tradition of singing. This competition provided a platform for students of different colleges to showcase their talents in singing. Songs presented by students were tribute to legendary singer Bharat Ratna Lata Mangeshkar who was known as "Queen of Melody", "Nightingale of India", and "Voice of the Millennium". Her songs presented by participants not only mesmerized judges but the audience too. Such competitions assist in the "self-development" of students and enrich the students to develop their ability and confidence to face the competitive world and carry forth our rich heritage of music. Participants sang "Mukhda" and "Antara" of the song. The judges for the event were Ms. Sushmita Yadav and Ms. Aabha Bagaitkar. Judges gave fruitful inputs to all the participants and winners were awarded with trophies and certificates.
