Aims & Objectives of the Event:

R.J. College is celebrating its diamond jubilee this year. In 60 years we have tried to harness the best of the talent not just amongst the students but also in teaching and non-teaching staff.

The main aim behind this event is to provide a platform for the non-teaching staff to display their talent and flair of writing a board. A hand written board is an environment friendly method of display rather than a flex which is chemically treated and also adds to more solid waste. The United Nations has given 17 SDG's about sustainability of resources for this year. Keeping this in mind we wish to promote use of resources that will be safe for the environment as well as sustainable.

A hand-written board will also bring out the creativity amongst the staff and act as a stress buster in their daily routine. This event will be a break from the monotony of work.

Themes for writing the board:

- ✓ Independence Day/Republic Day celebration
- ✓ Superannuation of a Staff member
- ✓ College festival board
