Report

The Departments of History and Economics organized a Food Stall Competition as a part of celebration of National Tourism Day on January 25, 2023. The programme was titled 'Tastes of India' and showcased and celebrated the food cuisine and culture of different states of India reflecting our beautiful diversity.

Students were allowed to decorate their food stall with different elements representing the state's culture. Some dressed up to reflect the costumes of the state. The students sold the food items they had prepared such as Puranpoli, Misti Dohi, Jhal muri, Kachori, Kakra, Amboli, Solkadhi, Khaman Dhokla etc. They also prepared a balance sheet to understand cost incurred and profits earned. It was an activity with a blend of learning and fun. The student participants enthusiastically answered the queries put up by the judges. 21 students participated in the events. The states of Gujarat, Maharashtra, Orissa, Bengal, and Uttar Pradesh were represented on the stalls. Ms. Sanika Gupte, Head, Department of Zoology and Ms. Chaaya Pinge, Head, Department of Statistics judged the event.
