About

Department of Psychology, RJC was established in September 2021 with a vision of making its mark in the great endeavour of learning Psychology!

An enterprising student association by the name of PsychoSphere (meaning "the realm of human consciousness") was also born in the same year under our Department. Since its inception, various fruitful events have been conducted under PsychoSphere. Now our Psychology Association is introducing the first ever edition of its Annual Festival:

'मनस्' (meaning "the mind")

We welcome you to this grand celebration with warm hearts!

REPORT

Department of Psychology and Psychology Association- PsychoSphere introduced its first annual fest 'मनस्'. The event was conducted on 9th February 2023 from 09:00 am to 04:00 pm comprising multiple events geared towards mental health education. The event was inaugurated with lighting of lamps and a motivation address to the student participants by Capt. Pravin Naik, Vice principal, RJC followed by the brief reading of the schedule by Mr. Chinmay Bapat, In-charge, Department of Psychology. The official banner of 'मनस्' was also revealed to mark the official inaugural of the annual fest. After the inauguration, student attendees and participants were taken to Room No. 44 for the Debate Competition. Dr. Amita Valmiki, Head of the Department of Philosophy, RJC was invited to mediate the debate competition. The topic given to the students was 'Premarital Intimacy' Students participants were randomly divided in two groups for 'In favour' and 'against' arguments. Both the groups presented their arguments one by one followed by an open forum inviting audience participation. After the presentation of the debate, the mediator announced the names of the winning team members. Criteria for the selection of winners were also discussed. Dr. Valmiki communicated with the students regarding the topic of debate as an ending note. A formal Vote of Thanks was presented by Mr. Chinmay Bapat. After the conclusion of the debate competition, at 10:30 am, participants were taken to the poster exhibition. Educational posters were made and presented by the students of F.Y.B.A. & S.Y.B.A. Psychology. Along with the posters, fun games & activities were also organized for the students by the students. This was an attempt to promote mental health awareness among the youth without making it taxing for them. Students of Psychology also presented cultural performances including dancing, singing, and poetry. This not only helped in entertaining the crowd, but also boosted the confidence and motivation of the students to perform in social settings. After the successful exhibition of the cultural events and posters, students were given a brief lunch break at 12:30 pm followed by the Intercollegiate Meme-Making Competition. Participants from various colleges were asked to submit their entries two days before the commencement of the event. Ms. Vedashree Bhagwat, Counsellor, Maniben M. P. Shah College (Autonomous) was invited to judge the event. The guest was formally introduced by Mr. Chinmay Bapat and a small interaction between Ms. Bhagwat and the audience helped establish the rapport. All the entries sent by students from various colleges were presented to Ms. Bhagwat while maintaining anonymity in order to ensure an unbiased opinion. After the presentations were over, names of the winners were announced. Criteria for the selection of winners were also discussed. A formal vote of thanks was presented to the guest by Mr. Chinmay Bapat. The event concluded with the movie screening at 2:00 pm. 'The Imitation Game (2014)' was screened to the students followed by a brief debriefing session. A final vote of gratitude was presented to the student volunteers and members in the audience and the event was successfully concluded.
