REPORT

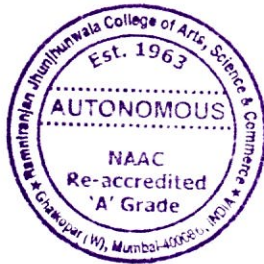

The department of Botany organised a Departmental Fest 'Botanica' with a multi-pronged agenda:

1. To organise a talk by the Chief Guest which is based on the recent trends in technology/innovation/entrepreneurship.
2. To develop research aptitude among Undergraduate students by project work learning by doing. All SYBSc students are allotted projects in groups consisting of 10 to 12 students. This helps in team building, organisational skills, communication and language skills.
3. To promote science among school children.
4. To showcase the diversity and application of plant sciences for higher secondary students.
5. Teachers mentor students (mentee) for project work with increased bonding and strengthening mentor mentee relationship.

Following projects were allotted under a teacher mentor and the projects were successfully completed and showcased in Botanica.

All students were provided with participation certificates. Three student projects were awarded 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes and two consolation prizes were also given.

The exhibition was visited by school students of various schools.
