REPORT

The activities of the English Literary Association were inaugurated on August 29, 2018. The Chief Guest, Dr Bhagyashree Varma, Faculty, University of Mumbai, gave a talk on 'New Perspectives in Literature'. She gave them insights into the recent trends in literature. She discussed a wide range of career opportunities available for graduates and postgraduates in the field of literature. She gave the students some glimpses of poems and literary works which she had translated to English from other languages and also read out some of her self-composed poems. Along with this, she also spoke about ways to improve one's language and spoken and written skills. The undergraduate students of English were highly impressed by the intellectual discussion and participated wholeheartedly in the inaugural event.
