Sport is a way to encourage self-discipline in one's life.

The main motto for conducting this event was to provide a platform for the kids to showcase their strength and courage. Team sports wanted to do an event on martial arts for a long time for the kids. When our team decided to conduct the event, we took the help of our own team member who is a national level taekwondo player. He helped us with the rules and regulations and how an open taekwondo event should go about. The team started pitching to the nearby local taekwondo clubs. The academies and club were provided with the registration and team forms. Then one short meeting was conducted by our sports director in which many coaches were invited to give their opinion and share their past experience while conducting mega taekwondo event. Then the guide us and also prepared short list of expenses. On D-Day, The event started at 8 AM when all the officials and participants gathered and the rules and regulations were communicated to the students. The opening was done by our Principal Ma'am, Usha Mukundan. The officials had a short training with the revised rules of taekwondo which was taken by Master Kamlesh Shambharkar. Before the matches began, we had a demo fight by two national players of the club Akshat Ojha (who also happens to be the BOD of the club) and Sunil Mawale (5 time national player). There was one bout so we had to finish all the fights of the girls and then the boys. Refreshments were provided. The winners were awarded with medals and certificates by our Principal Ma'am, Usha Mukundan and all the participants were given participation certificates. The impact analysis was that many kids got a platform to showcase their talent and fight in a taekwondo tournament competition. The fighters were really happy as they got an opportunity to win medals at a very young age. The excitement and enthusiasm of the kids was at next level. Even a very good sport was promoted.
