Report of the Program Talk by Dr. Rachna Bharadwaj on Gender Inclusion

The Guest Speaker for the day Dr. Rachana Bharadwaj spoke in inclusion of all gender types in our lives. It is not just the legal issues which are sorted out by our judiciary regarding gender rights, but we need to revolutionize our minds and incorporate the different genders in our day today lives. Madam spoke from a legal point of view, how many acts are being framed and implemented; but the need is always the mental framework of each individual that has to be changed for incorporating all three types of gender – male, female and the third gender. The talk had serious connotations that are to be reflected and how in all spheres of human life change is very much required for prejudice less society.

Report

The activities of CWDC for the academic year 2021-2022 were initiated on Wednesday, 11th August 2021 on a very apt note through the celebration of 'National Daughters Day'. Film clippings and Discussion were organised to make the event unforgettable.

Dr. Sneha Deuskar, Vice-Principal In Charge of Association activities and Head, Department of Marathi, Dr. Amita Valmiki, Head, Department of Philosophy and Prof. Indra Saud, Faculty, Department of Mathematics were the Guests of Honour and our special invitees. Dr. Baishakhi Dutta, Chairperson of CWDC gave the opening remarks.

A few film clippings from three movies Dangal, Gunjan Saxena and Neerja were screened. The scene captured ups and downs, varied moods, struggles, virtues and triumphs of daughters and their parents in a very sensitive manner. All the films were biopics which made them motivating and inspirational.

The discussion by our respected Guests of Honour was very gripping and meaningful. Each of them highlighted the role of positive parenting and equal treatment to daughters and sons in the process of upbringing. As daughters, Sneha Madam and Amita Madam beautifully articulated their relationship with their parents. As a father, Indra Sir spoke about the unique bond between him and his daughter. He also recited a self-composed poem befitting the occasion.

The programme was compered efficiently by Dr. Nisha Muni. Prof. Arundhati Chitre initiated the film clippings and made the programme very substantive. Dr Sanket Tikare Proposed the vote of thanks and Prof. Subodh Barve helped in camera shots.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

College Women Development Cell (CWDC) had organised an event "Self Defence Techniques for Girls" on Monday, 04th October 2021 at 1.00 pm on Online Zoom Platform. The aim of the event was to promote safety measures among the girl students.

Mr. VipulSuru from Women's Self Defence Centre, Andheri, was invited to demonstrate the self defence techniques during this programme which was attended only by girl students.

Mr. Suru spoke extensively about the do's and dont's while defending oneself. He advised the girls to be vigilant about the surroundings, have keen observation and be mentally prepared for any untoward incident.

Mr. Suru shared valuable safety tips such as carrying deodorant, duplicate vehicle keys, whistle which could be used to protect oneself.

Suru sir asked girls to walk with confidence & good body posture always... He also told to keep parents informed about the late night travel so that they can trace & help if needed.

He spoke about the pressure points, appropriate postures and use of hands and legs to defend oneself.

Mr. Suru demonstrated the techniques to increase the confidence of the girl students.

The session included an interaction and Mr. Suru patiently addressed the questions posed by the students.

117 girl students and 05 teachers participated in this programme.

REPORT

Project Name ASTITHVA

Venue Zoom Cloud Meeting

Start Time 12-10-2021 16:00:00 End Time 12-10-2021 17:30:00

1. The aim of the project was to promote and encourage LGBTQ Community.
2. We had a joint project with Rotaract club of dream home from Chennai, as we wanted to make this concept broader and we wanted people from different parts of India.
3. LGBTQ community are always treated less than our normal population, but why are they treated less??? To remove these stereo types we organised this project named "ASTITHVA"
4. GAY, LESBIANS, TRANSGENDERS were as a speaker in this event because most of the youth has never done a conversation or have cleared their doubt regarding the thoughts they have about LGBTQ community
5. In this project we had an interactive session between the attendees and the speaker.
6. The main aim was to create a new India which will treat every gender equally and every gender will have their respected identification

Summary

1. The project was started by president ordering the project, followed by IS director introducing the speaker.
2. SUMIT PAWAR is the founder of QKNIT, SPLASH EVENTS and QUEERKALA, he is affiliated with various organisations in India and his film khwaish has won the best silent film award.
3. He started by introducing himself and asked if everyone is comfortable to talk on this topic.
4. He started with telling us what LGBTQ COMMUNITY actually is, he told us the difference between gay, lesbians and transgender.
5. Many participants were asking doubts and questions but without hesitating he answered them all.
6. It was overall a very interactive and indeed a great session
7. Speaker sumit pawar educated us on various topics regarding LGBTQ community and broke these stereotypes of not treating them equally or avoiding them.
8. The IS director then thanked the speaker for such a great session and vote of thanks was displayed and given to the speaker.
9. Jt. Secretary vishakha Thakkar then gave the sec report followed by the president adjourning the project.

Report

Raising awareness of issues facing girls internationally, such as education, nutrition, forced child marriage, legal rights, and medical rights. Girls are leaders. Girls are change-makers. Girls are driving good and growth around the world. They are a fundamental source of transformational change for gender equality, and technology is a crucial tool to support their work, activism and leadership. This competition was an attempt to raise awareness about Girl-Child, HER importance and for HER EQUAL RIGHTS.

Report

Five short films were shown; following are the details of the film:

1. <https://youtu.be/kATgYzLQS1o> Jobless - Journey of the Common Man; written, edited and directed by Rohit Aggarwal.
2. https://youtu.be/rgmvjPg_QA Ghar ki Baat - A Short Film on Gender Roles; directed by Shikha, Script by Manu Bisht
3. https://youtu.be/SJx_EKrPzDA Rent - Loving your Parents; directed by Danish Ali
4. <https://youtu.be/EDtRiXjPG0Q> Because we are men; directed by Nachiket Joshi, story by Pradeep Vaghela
5. <https://youtu.be/Zd8NSaU3Ce4> Why Men Can Cry; Creative Head: Vipul Gupta, Krishna Keshav

These films emphasized on 'the other side of the Man'; the problems faced by male gender in various walks of life and in their relationships. It is not easy or cake-walk for a man as the person belongs to 'male-gender'. Like females, the transgender or the third gender, they too confront different problems in life. They sort it out in their small ways which is also commendable and need to be recognized. Men cannot cry, men are strong and control their emotions, men are not supposed to do female jobs as that is challenge to their masculinity, they are responsible for all material wants in the family; even though they feel like crying, even when they help in kitchen and other household chores, they are denounced as they seem to go contrary to their gender. This is pathetic. So, these problems of male gender need to be addressed. Precisely the films shown at this event brought to surface these issues faced by men. And it was students' comments that created a unique reflective base for all to think. Discussions were very fruitful; and most of the students agreed to change one's stance to looking at the problems faced by 'men'.

Report

Selecting Gender Champions is to raise awareness among students to treat all gender people – Females, Males and Third Gender – at par and they all stand on equal pedestal. These Gender Champions will take the message of equality and rights of masculine, feminine and LGBTQ+ community. Let us accept all human beings as human beings without preconceived notions of categorization and prejudices. This will make our nation strong and peaceful with harmonious way of life. These Gender Champions will forward this message in society for equal opportunity and rights for all gender communities.

REPORT OF INSTALLATION OF NAPKIN VENDING MACHINE

During Covid-19 pandemic, the previously installed vending machine was not being used as a result the machine went out of order and in an irreparable condition. The vending machine being an essential part of the ladies common room since the girl students use it. There was a necessity to install a new machine. The new machine was inaugurated and installed by the members of College Women Development Committee and Rotaract Club. One machine was gifted by the Rotaract Club of Ghatkopar and two other machines have been purchased by the college.
